reviewing the Guard of Honor

The ceremony for the investiture of Mr. Corneliu Dobrițoiu as minister of national defence took place on Tuesday, 8 May, at the Ministry of National Defence headquarters.

The investiture ceremony started with the playing of Romania's national anthem. Romania's Prime Minister, Victor Ponta, addressed the audience by mentioning the fact that he attended this investiture ceremony in respect of the fundamental institution of the Romanian state. I will offer you the support needed to preserve your dignity, reach the level and meet the standards set by NATO for its members' armed forces, stated Victor Ponta.

Recently invested as minister of national defence, Corneliu Dobrițoiu enumerated some of the defence policy goals, also outlining the importance to continue implementing the operational commitments not only at domestic level but also those assumed as part of NATO and EU. The new minister of national defence ensured the audience that he would dedicate his efforts to accomplish all the above mentioned goals.

The ceremony was attended by the Chief of General Staff, Lieutenant General Ștefan Dănilă, the Deputy Chief of General Staff, Lieutenant General Dan Ghica-Radu, the presidential advisor for national defense and security, Iulian Fota, representatives of the ministry's central structures and Services, foreign military attachés accredited to Bucharest, reserve and retired military personnel.
